Dennehy Cup Final

Cork Constitution v Mallow

Woodleigh Park

12.00 noon Sunday 27th April 2014

Cork Constitution J2 XV meet Mallow in the much delayed Final of the Dennehy Cup on Sunday next at Woodleigh Park, the home of Highfield RFC.

Constitution won their way to the final last September with wins over Ballincollig, Bandon and Sunday's Well; while Mallow defeated Mitchelstown, Kinsale and Old Christians on their route to the final.

In the League Constitution gained a third place finish in the preliminary stage; and then finished on top of the next phase ahead of Highfield, Clonmel and Mallow.

In the J2 Cup, after a walk-over from Tralee, they reversed the previous result over Corca Dhuibne, but lost in the next round against Bandon.

Thus, Sunday is last chance saloon for some silverware for the season.

Constitution have won the trophy on eighteen occasions since it was first played in 1975; the last success came in 2011, when Ballincollig were defeated 13-7 under the captaincy of John O'Donovan.

Ulster Bank Bateman Cup Final

The date, venue and kick-off time have been confirmed for the final of the Ulster Bank Bateman All-Ireland Cup between defending champions Cork Constitution and UCD.

John O'Mahony Cork Constitution Hon Secretary called correctly and won the toss to host the final and as defending champions Constitution will be looking to keep the venerable cup on Leeside for another season.

The final kicks off at 2.30 pm at Temple Hill on Saturday May 3.

Constitution overcame Ulster Senior Cup champions Queen's University at the semi-final stage, emerging as convincing 47-14 winners.

Leinster Senior League Cup winners UCD booked their place in the decider with 21-20 victory over Galwegians in a thrilling last-four clash.

U 8 News

Con U8s took on our Dublin visitors St Marys at sunny Temple hill last Sat 19th April. As would be expected the Leinster side was full of running rugby, but this was curtailed continuously by tough tackling from Eoin Hurley and Zach McGarry. Mathew Kiernan, ably assisted by Frankie Sheehan Jnr, was a threat to the St Marys teams all day with numerous turnovers and steals that set up Cons attack.

Although the St Marys team were playing some great rugby they found it hard to stop the strong running of Sam Hernan, Liam Healy and Liam Hegarty.

All 9 games were played in a very sporting manner under the watchful eye of a large travelling support with handshakes and three cheers for both sides at the end of every game.

Over the course of the morning each of the Cons three teams played three matches with a 100% record at the final whistle.
