Semi Final Ulster Bank All Ireland League Cork Constitution F.C. V Young Munster R.F.C. Templehill Sunday 17th April 2011 2:35

For the fifth successive season, Cork Constitution have completed the regulation phase of the Ulster Bank League as Division 1 table toppers. Constitution claimed a final day victory over Blackrock to finish at the top of Division 1A with 47 points from their 10 wins and 2 draws, both 11-11 against Garryowen.

Young Munster have qualified for today's semi final in third place with 37 points from their with 8 wins. Young Munster are on a roll and finished strongly with wins over Shannon and Garryowen to edge St Mary's College for a coveted semi final spot.

There have been 15 previous meetings between the clubs since the advent of the AIL. Constitution have won 10 while Young Munster have registered 5 wins. This season Constitution won 32-19 at Temple Hill in October, while Young Munster reversed the result, winning 6-3 at Clifford Park in February. It is ten years since the teams last meet in a semi final in 2001 which was also played at Temple Hill and which Constitution won on a score line of 18-10 after a very tight game.

As this is our final home game of the season, we wish to thank all our members for their enthusiastic support in another vintage season. We also thank our Main Sponsor, Rochestown Park Hotel, our match sponsors, ground and programme advertisers for their generosity, Serge Blanco Shop for the Man of the Match awards and Eco Douglas for the Guess the Score prize

The programme for Sunday includes a family barbeque, a mini blitz with teams from High Wycombe RFC and Gorey RFC, activities for all family members, and discounted prices in the club bar.

President Der O'Riordan is confident that it will be a great day out and expects a cracking game of rugby, "The rugby in this year's Ulster Bank League has been a pleasure to watch and played to the highest standard. We are hoping people will turn out and watch Constitution and Young Munster battle it out for a spot in the Ulster Bank league final.

As this is an I.R.F.U. game an entrance fee of €10, (OAP & Students €5) is payable. School children free.

Please note members will not be entitled to free admission on presentation of their membership card.

Junior Cup Final Easter Sunday Musgrave Park 2.30 PM

Congratulations to our Junior 1 team who have qualified for the Munster Junior Cup final in which they will play newly-promoted Cashel at Musgrave Park next Sunday 24th April. Cashel will play in Division 2B of the Ulster Bank League next season having won the Munster Junior League, thus gaining automatic promotion. The final will provide a great test for the Constitution young guns, a team that features many of this year's very successful Under 21 squad.

Drawn Semi-final I.R.F.U Regulations
