Ulster Bank League

Dolphin R.F.C. V Cork Constitution F.C.

Friday 7th November 2013 19.30 PM

Musgrave Park

Tonight Cork Constitution meet Dolphin in the first Ulster Bank League local-derby of the season under the Musgrave Park lights. Another top class competitive game is in prospect between the two Cork sides in the country's premier division.

This fixture has been running since 1902 and is one of the oldest derby's in Irish Sport and a great Cork sporting occasion is bound to be in store on Friday night.

Both Dolphin and Constitution will be fielding many of Munster's rising stars and the duel between both sides for bragging rights this Christmas is bound to be an exciting one. Constitution have had the better start to the campaign with three wins and one draw, while Dolphin's record is two wins and two losses.

Last weekend Constitution defeated Garryowen at Temple Hill, while Dolphin lost to league leaders UCD at Belfield. Whatever their respective form up to now, it is certain that both sides will raise their game for this one, as local pride will be the imperative.

Last season Constitution did the AIL double, winning 18-13 at Temple Hill in November and 27-24 at Musgrave Park in March. Both games were tight affairs, with the winning score in the second game coming in the final minute. And just like last Saturday against Garryowen, it was Bryan Cagney who scored the vital match-winner.

Many of Munster's rising stars will be on show on Friday night with former Cork hurler and Ireland Under-20 international Darren Sweetnam lining out on the wing for Dolphin and last season's Division 1A Young Player of the Year Johnny Holland directing play from out-half for Constitution.

The game is also a real family affair with four sets of brothers in the two squads. The Cronin and Scannell brothers are on the Dolphin side while the Duffy and Ryan clans are represented on the Constitution side.

Leading Cork car dealership, Keary's Motor Group, are the proud sponsor of both sides. The Keary families have a strong association with both clubs, while Keary's group director Brendan Keary has the distinction of playing All-Ireland League rugby for both sides..

The game will be live on IrishRugby.ie with commentary from the IRFU's Gordon Black and former Dolphin second row and rugby pundit Hugh Farrelly on the microphone.
