Ulster Bank League

St Mary's College R.F.C. V Cork Constitution F.C.

Saturday 7th December 2013

Templeville Road 2.30 PM

Cork Constitution return to Dublin on Saturday, for the second successive week to play St Mary's College at Templeville Road. After last week's disappointing result against UCD, Constitution will be keener than ever to get their Ulster Bank League challenge back on track before the Christmas break.

Of the two sides St Mary's are the form team for after a slow start they kicked off their season with a 18:6 win over UCD and last week they lost narrowly to Old Belvedere in a 24:27 thriller in Templeville Rd. Constitution will still fancy their chances however as they showed glimpses of what they can do in their defeat to UCD last week.

Rivalry between the clubs has been intense over the years, with 25 league meetings between the clubs since the AIL began in 1991. Constitution lead that head-to-head 15-10. In addition the teams have met four times in play-offs and in Cup competitions, and Constitution have won three of those encounters.

Last Season the only trophy that had eluded Constitution finally made it is way to Temple Hill as Constitution lifted the Ulster Bank Bateman Cup with a powerful display against St Mary's at Templeville winning 24:19

Try scorers for Constitution were Rob Clune and Scott Deasy with Johnny Holland contributing 14 points with 3 penalties, a conversion and a drop goal in injury time.

There are a number of Juvenile teams making the trip to Dublin with games arranged against St Mary's College teams in the morning.
