Munster Senior Challenge Cup

Cork Constitution F.C. V Nenagh Ormond RFC.

Saturday 12th March 2016 14.30 PM

The semi-final of the Bank of Ireland Munster Senior Challenge Cup takes place tomorrow at Temple Hill with Cork Constitution and Nenagh Ormond meeting with a 14:30 PM kick-off

We welcome Nenagh Ormond President, David Kennedy, his committee members, team and supporters to Temple Hill.

Constitution are holders of the Munster Senior Cup and will be hoping to continue their drive to make history as they seek four-in-a-row cup wins, a feat never before achieved by the club.

To reach the semi-final Constitution beat Garryowen 11-9 in a well contested tie at Temple Hill. The key moment in the game occurred in the 66th minute when lock Conor Kindregan drove over from a line-out steal.

The conversion from out wide was missed and Garryowen kept in touch with penalty in the 70th minute, but could not close the deficit before the end, despite a couple of late penalty chances.

In the other quarter final Nenagh Ormond despatched Dolphin on a score line of 26-3. Dolphin were favourites going into the match but Nenagh in the middle of a good run of form were runaway winners in the end.

With home advantage Constitution will be expected to advance to the final. However Nenagh Ormond with proven match winners in Kolio Hifo, Lemeki Vaipulu and Anthony Kavanagh will be mildly confident of bringing off a major upset
