Fraser Mc Mullen Cup

All Ireland Semi- Final UNDER 20'S

Cork Constitution F.C. V U. C. C R.F.C.

Saturday 9th April 2016. K.O. 2.30 pm.

The Fraser McMullen Cup sees some of the country's best Under -20 players battling it out for All-Ireland silverware and consistently produces extremely high levels of both drama and skill.

The semi-final draw for the 2015/16 Fraser McMullen Cup has produced two fascinating clashes, with Cork Constitution and University College Dublin both having home advantage.

2014 Champions Cork Constitution welcome U.C.C to Temple Hill, while in the other semi-finalists it's an all Dublin affair with U.C.D meeting Terenure College at Belfield. It's nicely set up for a Cork V Dublin decider .

Last week U.C.C. caused a big shock in the Cup when they knocked out a fancied Lansdowne side in Dublin on a scoreline of 21-10. The students trailed 10-0 at half time to the cup holders but second half tries from Paul O'Regan, Liam McSherry and Graham Smith all converted by Bobby Smith saw the students advance to meet Constitution.

Cork Constitution received a walk over from Blackrock College last week and are coming into this week's match with very little game time under their belts as their last match was over a month ago.

Constitution Team Manager Don Mullins is not happy with his side's lack of game time and feels that the walk over by Blackrock could have been avoided if the I.R.F.U. standardised the age limits for U 20 rugby.

The last time the two sides met was back in November in the U 20 League when Constitution won 35-5. However, Don Mullins is not reading much into November's victory and expects the clash on Saturday to be far from straightforward.

"U.C.C are a great team with excellent players and we need to make sure we prepare properly so we can play really well against them. If we don't, there is a good chance of them winning. U.C.C showed last week just how good a team they are, it's going to be difficult."

If teams are tied at full-time there will be extra-time of 10 minutes each way.

The final will be played over the weekend of April 15-17 at a venue to be confirmed. Recent winners of the highly prized U-20 competition include UCD (2011 and 2012), Lansdowne (2013 and 2015) and Cork Con (2014).
