

Bank of Ireland Munster Senior Cup Final

Cork Constitution F.C. V Young Munster R. F.C.

Sunday 26th February 2016 14.30 PM

Irish Independent Park

The Bank of Ireland Munster Senior Cup Final between Constitution and Young Munster is the pick of the weekend's action. In Sunday's final at Irish Independent Park, Young Munster will be looking to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of Cork Constitution and end Constitutions pursuit of an historic 5-in-a-row.

Last year Constitution made history, becoming the first ever Senior side in the 125-year history of the club to win the Munster Senior Cup four times in a row.

A Darren Sweetnam try was Con's only major of the game, added to by three Tomás Quinlan penalties as the Cork side had enough to see off Young Munster despite Darragh O'Neill's converted effort with 15 minutes remaining.

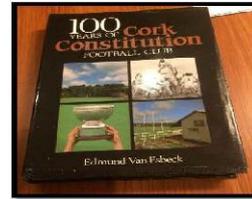

Young Munster have shown impressive form on their way to the final, a resounding 48-0 victory over Kanturk in the first round made clear their intentions, before hammering local rivals Shannon 50-3 at Tom Clifford Park. Their semi-final against Cashel was an altogether more cagy affair, with Shane Airey's drop-goal booking a consecutive final appearance in the first period of extra-time.

Cork Constitution's passage to the final has been more comfortable throughout, if slightly less spectacular than their opponents. A 27-6 win over UL Bohemian got their latest campaign off to a successful start, before Nenagh Ormond became the latest to feel the Cork fury, defeated 57-10 at Temple Hill.

The semi-final saw an all-Cork affair as Constitution met Highfield under lights in Temple Hill and despite a gallant effort from the visitors, Constitution maintained their unbeaten run in the competition stretching back to 2011 with a 31-15 win.

This season sees both sides near the summit of the All-Ireland League Division 1A with little to separate them, and with the Limerick outfit defeating Constitution 37-15 in the side's last meeting in the AIL, the only team to win at Temple Hill this season, the stage is set for yet another enthralling final in Cork.
