Ulster Bank League Division 1A

Lansdowne F.C. v Cork Constitution F.C.

Sunday 23rd April 2017 14.30 PM

For the second season running Cork Constitution have made it to the Ulster Bank League Semi-Finals. This is a fantastic achievement and we have a tough away semi-final in Dublin this Sunday.

We know Lansdowne will be a formidable challenge and the home support will be out in strength. As such we need as many Constitution supporters as possible to make the trip to the Capital and give the team as much support as possible.

The Club will put on a coach for those who want to travel. Cost will be €10 and will leave Temple hill at 9.15 am. We do need to know numbers so can those intending to travel on the coach please call/text Dave Fitzgerald on 086 8554943.

The juvenile section are also organising coaches for Sunday and should any parent wish to travel they are all very welcome.

Come and give the team the support they need to win !!!

Semi-final Pre-Match Lunch

Lansdowne are holding a pre-match lunch next Sunday at 12:30 PM. Cost is €30 pp including the match ticket.

If you are interested in attending the lunch please contact Kevin Fielding on 087 283-7489 or kevin@altomoon.com

2016/17 ULSTER BANK BATEMAN CUP FINAL:

Saturday, April 29 Anglesea Road, 12.45pm

OLD BELVEDERE v CORK CONSTITUTION

Old Belvedere will play host to Cork Constitution in the final of the Ulster Bank-sponsored Bateman All-Ireland Cup on Saturday, April 29.

Cork Constitution are chasing an incredible fifth Bateman Cup success in as many years having beaten St. Mary's College, UCD, Clontarf and Galwegians in finals between 2013 and 2016.

This season's decider, which will be televised by RTE Television, kicks off at 12.45pm. It will be Old Belvedere's first ever Bateman Cup final appearance and they are bidding to become the first Leinster club to claim the All-Ireland title in the modern era - Munster's Bruff, Garryowen and Cork Con have shared out the trophy since the competition was reintroduced in 2011.
