ALL IRELAND LEAGUE

Division IA

Cork Constitution F.C. V Young Munster R. F.C.

8th December 2018 14.30 PM

This Saturday we welcome Young Munster President, Nay Cantillon, his committee, team and supporters to Temple Hill. Last week-end Cork Constitution jumped to the top of the of All-Ireland League Division 1A when they ended Clontarf's six-match winning streak with a stirring 16-13 comeback victory at Castle Avenue.

Leading 13-3 well into the final quarter, Clontarf looked set to take the spoils and preserve their 100% record this season, but the boot of Aidan Moynihan kept Constitution in contention and replacement Joe McSwiney's converted try drew them level.

Clontarf appeared to be safe when they were awarded a scrum on their own 22 in extra time but the Constitution pack brilliantly secured a turnover penalty. Moynihan stepped up to convert the penalty to dramatically take the spoils.

Last week-end Young Munster had to be happy with three hard-earned league points after an epic 11-try contest with U.C.D. ended at 34 points apiece in Greenfields. Young Munster were hanging on to a 34-29 lead when U.C.D. scored a late try besides the post to level the scores. A missed conversion meant both sides shared the spoils.

League places count for nothing when Constitution play Young Munster and another close encounter is in the offing on Saturday. It's two clubs with rich traditions, it's Cork versus Limerick, and it promises to be an intriguing tie with the result always in doubt until the final whistle.

Last season Shane Airey was Young Munster's goal-kicking hero as his last-gasp penalty secured a prized 20-19 win in Temple Hill.

The game promises to be a tense affair and while supporters of both clubs may find the tension too much to handle it's definitely a game for neutrals to enjoy and savour.

AIL Match Day Information

Admission: €10 for adults, OAP & students €5.

Paid up members of Cork Constitution and all children under the age of 16 have free admission.
