ALL IRELAND LEAGUE

Division IA

Cork Constitution F.C. V Lansdowne F.C.

9Th March 2019 14.30 PM

On Saturday we welcome Lansdowne Football Club President, Kieran Mulligan, his committee, team and supporters to Temple Hill. Last Saturday, stung by UCD at home the previous week, Cork Constitution outscored Munster rivals Garryowen by three tries to one as they came away from Dooradoyle with a well-judged 15-7 victory. Sean French snapped up two more tries to add to his hat-trick against UCD. The 19-year-old winger was fresh from training with the Ireland Under-20s against Joe Schmidt's senior side in Belfast and together with team mate Jonathon Wren has been selected for the Ireland U-20s as they resume their Six Nations campaign against France in Cork.

Constitution got off to a flying start in Limerick thanks to out-half Aidan Moynihan's try from a terrific Liam O'Connell offload out of a double tackle after just three minutes. He was unable to convert from out wide and the cross-pitch wind was tough for both sides to negotiate with a number of stop-start passages of play.

Constitution increased their lead just before half time when Number 8 Luke Cahill broke from a five-metre scrum and passed wide to the waiting French who grounded in the corner, making it 10-7 to the visitors at the interval. Sean French completed his brace with 18 minutes remaining, again showing his strength to get past two players in the corner via another Cahill assist.

In the same series of games the ever-dependable former Constitution player Scott Deasy came to the rescue of defending All-Ireland League champions Lansdowne as his late penalty guided them to a tense 25-24 victory over a stubborn Young Munster side on the Aviva Stadium's back pitch.

The last time the two sides met back in October Lansdowne defeated Constitution 35-27, Saturdays game promises to be a cagey affair with both sides looking to consolidate their position at the top of the table and gain that all important home semi-final.

Munster U 18.5 Cup Semi-final

Cork Constitution V Cobh

Saturday 9Th March 2019 14.30 PM

Last Saturday in atrocious weather conditions, Cork Constitution's U 18.5 gained a tremendous victory away to Bruff in the quarter final of the U 18.5 Munster Cup on a score line of 21-0.

This was a fantastic performance by the Constitution team as when the two sides met in the league Bruff were victorious on a score line of 20-0.

The Munster U 18.5 cup is very competitive and for the team to progress this far is a great tribute to their coaches who have guided the team all the way from when they started in Temple Hill at U6.

This Saturday the team face Cobh in the semi-final of the cup, kick-off is at 14:30 in Old Christian's Grounds , Rathcooney.

Your support would be appreciated.
