

U 9's Visit Independent Park

The 33 Cork Con U9s who gathered for the Ireland-Wales U20s match at Independent Park not only enjoyed the flurry of early Irish tries but also trying to sway the referee every time the opposition crossed the try line.

The U9s' calls of "TMO" were so convincing that other groups of under-age players (and even some adults not quite so familiar with the rules) sitting nearby joined in.

Thanks to the large stock of parents who were more than happy to act as chaperones, it was a very easy process to gather the lads, tag them and get them safely and comfortably into the ground and into position ahead of the match.

Head coach Paul Gallagher had done a great job of getting tickets for the lads (no one is to mention him trying to present tickets from the Ireland-France fixture from 12 months earlier to the ground staff).

The lads were treated to some great tries and exhibition of skills from the U20s in the 36-22 victory which kept their attention throughout the match and the tension when Wales started coming back into it only added to the excitement.

The best part was that despite the late hour, they still turned up en masse for training the next day!

MINORS MYSTERY TOUR OF WEST CORK.

The Minors took it upon themselves to organise a day trip to West Cork, to keep the togetherness going, as this was a down week for the squad, and also to celebrate Winning the J2 League and Qualifying to play Garryowen in the Final of the J2 Munster Cup.

The full squad gathered in the Club carpark on Saturday lunchtime, with their Lunches, Togs and Towels packed away safely by their girlfriends, wives and mothers ready for the days adventure.

The management of the team was represented by Cian Parks, who collected the cost of the coach and laid down the days rules. By all accounts this speech lasted less than one minute " respect every establishment we will frequent and have a laugh " full stop.

The first stop was Innishannon as the group were getting coach fever, and had a refreshment, on to Clonakilty for an another refreshment, lunch not taken out of the bag and decision was made to use the togs and towels on another occasion. Anyway next stop was Timoleague again because of coach fever, before the final destination of The Anchor Bar in the beautiful setting of Courtmacsherry where the Inn Keeper Mr Fleming provided an excellent lunch and libations. All the usual fun and games took place in this establishment and not a drop was spilled. A big thank you to Mr Fleming who facilitated us with charm and good humour.

After Courtmacsherry the party proceeded to Kinsale for a quick stop before returning to Cork tired but happy.

The J2s next outing, this time on the pitch, is against Middleton in the Mick Barry Cup in Templehill Friday 13th March at 7:30pm.

The J2s have a busy couple of months rugby ahead of them, Semi-Final of the Mick Barry Cup, Munster Cup final, and The Minor Cup Campaign.

The spirit of rugby is alive and well with this group of fine young gentleman.

Cork Constitution has one of the finest facilities in Irish Rugby.

The club benefits from 3 bars and our facilities are ideal for all sorts of functions including Parties, Weddings, Funerals and Corporate team building days.

If you are holding a function why not consider using your own Club House, you won't regret it!

Call Terry Ward 021 4291960 or email: info@corkcon.ie to discuss your requirements and arrange to see the facilities.

Cork Constitution Annual Golf Classic 2020

The Cork Constitution F. C. annual golf classic takes place on 8th May in Douglas Golf Club. This will be one of the first outings to enjoy the new clubhouse facilities in Douglas which are scheduled to open end April. Team bookings are going fast and there are only a few slots left.

If golf is not your thing, consider taking the opportunity to sponsor a hole for the day. A sponsorship sign with your company's name will be placed on a tee box or green of your choice for the duration of the event.

This is one of the main fundraising events of the year for Cork Constitution. Your support will be greatly appreciated. The 3-person team booking will cost €300. Hole sponsorship is €100.

For further details on team booking and hole sponsorship, please contact Dave Cagney on 087 2364627 or cagneydave@gmail.com

Cork Constitution FC Shop
