

Energia All Ireland League

Cork Constitution F.C. V Clontarf F.C.

Saturday 03 December 2022 2.30 PM

After securing a comprehensive home win against Lansdowne on the 12 Nov Cork Constitution travelled to County Down last weekend to take on Ballynahinch. A formidable scrum complimented by some excellent place kicking from Aidan Moynihan and George Coomber saw Cork Constitution secure their fifth win in succession as they overcame the opposition 20-13. This leaves Constitution in third place, level on points with Dublin University in second and seven points adrift of undefeated Terenure following their away win over last season's AIL champions Clontarf.

On Saturday we will be extending a warm welcome to Clontarf F.C. President Ronan Mc Coy, his committee, team, and supporters to Temple Hill.

We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank Kearys Hyundai for your continued sponsorship of the club. Please take a moment to look at the car placement on Saturday and consider Kearys for your next car as they have some fantastic new and used car offers for 2023.

Pre-Match Lunch

The club will host the usual pre-match lunch on Saturday. The theme for this week's pre match lunch will be to celebrate and recognise all the Clubs volunteers who work tirelessly for the club and give so generously of their time.

There will be a parents table on the day, but we also have the added attraction of listening to the humorous and entertaining words of "Celebrity Solicitor" Mr Gerard Kean who will be speaking at the lunch!

Meet in the Clubhouse bar at 12.30pm. Lunch served at 1.00pm sharp. Cost per person is €35. Your support is actively encouraged and will be greatly appreciated.

Please call Jim Barry at 086 3855654 to reserve a lunch place.....early booking is recommended.

Après- Match

Why not join us in the club house bar after the match for a sociable drink, some tasty finger food and post-match discussion. It should be a highly entertaining and competitive game with only a solitary point separating Con and Clontarf. It is also Cork Constitutions last game prior to Christmas. Munster will have played on Friday evening, but we will be showing the Leinster v Ulster match at 1935 which may tempt you to stay with us a bit longer!

REFEREE RECRUITMENT

Cork Constitution FC, in conjunction with the Munster Association of Referees, is looking to recruit suitable past- and current-players, to get involved in refereeing, both within the club and beyond.

If the following piques your interest, then refereeing could be for you:

- keeping fit (referees run six miles in an 80-minute match),
- travelling (within Cork County, around Munster, around Ireland or further afield)
- taking part in a lively social scene after games, or
- getting an adrenaline rush when the big decision comes down to you

As well as these benefits, a referee's constant study of the game enriches their knowledge and enjoyment of this lifetime sport. There is more need for referees now than ever, so expect a warm welcome!

If you would like to hear more please send your name and contact details to Martin Ryan (marhonsec@mar.ie), Martin is a club member; Olly Hodges (olly.hodges@irfu.ie); or let Brian Hickey know you are
