Cork Constitution F.C. V Terenure R. F.C.

Saturday 01 April 2023 2.30 PM

Last Saturday Cork Constitution secured an emphatic 36-19 bonus point win over Shannon with tries from Luke Masters, Billy Scannell, Niall Kenneally, Harry O 'Riordan. and Aidan Moynihan, who also contributed a further six points from the boot with three successful conversions.

Notwithstanding the results of the remaining two fixtures of the AIL Clontarf, Terenure, Cork Constitution and Young Munster look set to compete in the plays offs. Garryowen, with only one win in the AIL this season, are destined for relegation while Shannon and UCD currently lie in 9th and 8th place respectively.

Cork Constitution have two tough battles ahead of them as this year's successful AIL season draws to a close. On Saturday, Con face Terenure for their last home fixture of the season before travelling to Tom Clifford Park on the 15th April to face Young Munster.

When Con and Terenure last met, in the second round of the AIL on the 8 Oct 22, Con suffered their heaviest defeat of the season 47-12 and will certainly have to be at their very best today when they take on the Dublin side who lie just one point adrift of current AIL leaders Clontarf.

Pre-Match Lunch....last one of the season!

The club will host the usual pre-match lunch on Saturday. Please meet in the Clubhouse bar at 12.30pm. and lunch is due to be served at 1.00pm sharp. The cost per person is €35. Your support is actively encouraged and will be greatly appreciated. Please call Jim Barry at 086 3855654, Donal Grogan at 087 2580374 or Brian Cox at 086 8116925 to reserve a lunch place..... as this could be the last one of the season we would encourage as many people as possible to support the Club and attend what is always a very sociable and well organised event.

Après- Match

Why not join us in the clubhouse bar after the match for a sociable drink, some tasty finger food, music and post-match discussion. It should be a highly entertaining and competitive game, with Con seeking to avenge the heavy defeat they suffered to Terenure in Round 2 of the AIL campaign.
